

The Hindu 13/12/2021

Energy conservation awards announced

Milma Dairy Palakkad the best medium-scale energy consumer

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT
THIRUVANANTHAPURAM

Travancore Cochin Chemicals Ltd., Udyogamandal has won the Kerala State Energy Conservation Award 2021 in the large scale energy consumer category. Milma Dairy Palakkad was adjudged the best medium-scale energy consumer.

The awards were declared on Sunday by the State Level Monitoring Committee for Energy Conservation constituted by the Energy Management Centre.

In the Buildings category, Gateway Varkala - IHCL Se-leQtions, Varkala was declared the winner while Kerala State Electricity Board Ltd emerged the winner in the Institutions and Organizations category. The awards carry a cash prize of ₹100,000 each.

In the large scale energy consumer category, Nitta Gelatin India Limited, Kakanad, will be conferred commendation.

The other commendation certificate winners are as follows: Indane Bottling plant, Cochin (Medium Scale energy consumer category), BEML Ltd, Palakkad Complex (Small Scale energy consumer category), F5 Sustainability Consultants, Kochi (Architect and Green Building Consultants Category), Cherukara Industries, Aluva (Retailers and Traders category), NavAlt Solar and Electric Boats Pvt Ltd, Ernakulam and Kerala Water Authority (Institutions and Organisations category) and Mallika G, Pathanamthitta (for individual efforts).

78 entries

The winners were selected from 78 entries received in eight different categories.